

Natalia Pazekha

Has successfully completed and met all requirements of the program

«Crisis Coaching»

This certifies that the participant has successfully completed the “Crisis Coaching” course, developed on the basis of the 8 core competencies of the International Coaching Federation (ICF), and gained foundational skills in supporting clients through crisis situations, including emotional stability, creating a safe space, and working with complex life transitions. The program included 32 hours of live training.

Andrey Nekrasov

Owner and founder CoachingUp-International University

Issue date: 23/04/26

Certificate: 7631761504NP